BAND BIOGRAPHY

Texas Toast and Jam brings a healthy dose of country music seasoned with a sprinkling of rock, pop and blues to every performance. If you're looking to have a great time, love to dance and enjoy seeing an exiting, professional musical group, Texas Toast and Jam will be a perfect fit for your event.

Texas Toast is a premier country rock group formed by Tyler Anderson and Trent Hicks in 1997 in Phoenix, Arizona. Tyler brings deep-rooted country vocals to the table along with his sharpened skills on guitar, piano and mandolin. With a background in gospel and vocal choir, Trent sings while holding down the rhythm on drums.

The two are accompanied by seasoned musicians, Gary Sachs on bass and Doc Brezenski on keyboard. The band members' collective experience on stage and in the studio produce a perfected, electrified, country rock sound. Their music will not only get audiences tapping their toes, but will most likely inspire them to get up and groove, making for a fun-filled night of entertainment.
